The ED Benchmarking Alliance (EDBA) is sponsoring a Conference Scholarship to the Innovations Emergency Department Management Conference 2019. The conference will be held at the Renaissance Nashville Hotel in Nashville, TN March 25-27, 2019.

The Conference Scholarship will cover the cost of conference registration and all associated activities. We will consider candidates per the submission of letters of intent provided by a colleague along with the nominee's CV. The nomination letter should include how the nominator knows the nominee, the nominee's expertise or interest as related to emergency department clinical operations, and why the nominee will benefit from attending the conference.

Please submit all nomination letters and nominee CVs to Mike Gibbons, EDBA Executive Director mike@edbenchmarking.org by February 25, 2019. We will inform all nominees and nominating colleagues by March 1, 2019.
